Glenda's Jotting's
By Glenda Greene

I look forward to Wednesdays. These are the days when my baths are scheduled. On those days I'm lowered into warm, soapy water to soak my tired limbs, and scrub them clean. During those wonderful 30 minutes, the lights are dimmed, and classical music—some of the pieces I used to play myself in the old days—piped in from the nearby radio. It's a marvelous experience.

One Wednesday, Michelle told me that Jim, the resident bird artist, was using Epsom salts to moisturize the skin that had become dry and scaly. I was intrigued, especially when she said it also came in lavender. Not knowing it was more expensive, I begged my sister-in-law to send me some. When she did, I splashed it generously into the water. The lavender fragrance pervaded my room for the entire day. I had to adapt the poem on the tub walls to suit the occasion. Lavender is to the body what fragrance is to the soul.

Now my soul keeps singing fragrantly.

Chaplain's Corner By Conrod Spence

As you go through this month, remember that God has a 100% success record. His reputation in failure has not yet began. He has thousands of years of success. One account of God's amazing successes that I would like to share with you is found in John chapter 2. In this account of how God is amazingly successful is the miracle of Jesus turning water into wine. Speaking about this incredible miracle the bible states: "when the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom, and saith unto him, every man doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now." John: 2: 9-10. The essence of the miracle is that God can use the ordinary to do extraordinary, and can transform the simple into something wonderful.

Regardless of who you are, and how diverse and complex are the variables in your life, if you trust God enough and is audacious enough to place all you got into His omnipotent hands, He has the power and wisdom to see you through. May you consciously give your ordinary life into the hand of the extraordinary God and allow him to transform it and make something remarkable and outstanding. Because God is able, I pray that he will supply you with all the necessary things you need and that you will have a wonderful month.
